Goodman Bates, Convicted of Murder i the First Degree in 1862, Pardoned by Governor Winana

LANSING, May 2.-Governor Winane today pardoned Goodman Bates, sent to Jackson for life for the grime of murder in the first degree from Lapeer county in March, 1862. Bates murdered his brother, and at the time there apared no extenuating circumstances, but Judge Josiah Turner, who presided at the trial, has made an investigation of the facts that have since developed, and believes the crime was the result of a series of persecutions on the part of the victim, who had repeatedly driven Goodman away from home through fear of bodily harm. The judge is confident that had all the facts judge is confident that had all the facts been presented upon the trial, a verdict of guilty in the first degree would not have been warranted. He warmly recommended the pardon, and the ad-visory board in the matter of pardons were unanimous to the same effect.

CRUSHED HIS BODY IN TWO. A Canadian Is Caught Between the "Soo" Canal Dock and a Steamer.

SAVLY STE MANIE, Mich., May 2-The big steamer Pasadena caught Watchman George F. Ford against the dook at the canal Saturday evening and literally orushed him in two. The lewer portion of his body dropped into the canal and has not been recovered. The upper part of his body, with his heart forced into the vein between neck and chest, fell over the dock. The Pasadena was entering the head of the canal, bound down, when Ford started to climb down the keel rope to take a line. He got too far, but did not notice it until the steamer was too close to the dock to raise himself, and the dock was too high to reach. The next instant the steamer had pinned him against the dock timbers. Ford's parents live near Courtright, Ont. He had been a schoolcher at Sombra, near Sarnis, and this was his first trip-
